Dear Fellow Cosmopolite:

Being a cosmopolite requires doing charitable acts. Therefore, please remember the survivors of Katrina, and do your part to help those who have been impacted by this devastation.

This issue of Cosmopolite focuses on items that you must pack in your keepall for your next trip. These travel products can be used while you are in-flight, at your hotel room, and out doing the town. Bon voyage!

Yoga Grip Gloves

Are you tired of slipping while trying to hold a downward dog yoga pose? If so, next time, try wearing Yoga Grip Hand and Foot Gloves. These gloves were designed to reduce slipping on mats. Rubber dotting on these gloves provides traction, while lightweight cotton/lycra material absorbs sweat. These gloves come in several sizes (small to x-large) for men and women. You can also choose from three colors: black, beige and sage. If you are turned off by having to wear foot and hand coverings, don't worry. It won't feel like you have anything on since these gloves are so comfortable. These gloves cost $14.98 and can be purchased at www.yogagripgloves.com.
